

Please identify specific scenarios and reflect on your recent experiences through the lens of this truism.

Learning from the Past

Recall a time when ignoring this truism led to a challenge or setback. What was that experience?

How would acknowledging the truism have altered the outcome?

Considering a 'do-over,' what would you change to learn from past mistakes and make more informed decisions?
